

CENTER FOR HEALTH EQUITY
Co-sponsoring with CENTER FOR REDUCING HEALTH DISPARITIES
presents
WORKS IN PROGRESS LECTURE SERIES

Friday, December 12, 2008
3-4 pm

“Strategies for Engaging Partnerships: Based on Lessons Learned using CBPR in an African-American Community”

PRESENTER:

Lena Grafton, MPH, CHES, Director of Community Outreach, St.
Vincent Charity Hospital, Peter Whitt, MSW, LSW, Associate Director,
Center for Health Equity, and Mildred Lowe, member,
Central Community Healthy Group

LOCATION:

Cleveland State University
Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs –
Sweet Seminar Room - UR 241
1717 Euclid Avenue

Parking:

17th Street Parking Garage (Between Chester & Euclid).

Please RSVP your attendance to receive a parking space to Kendra Daniel at k.daniel@csuohio.edu or by phone 216-687-4704.

We look forward to seeing you there!