Designing with the Environment
 A conversation with Steve Badanes, architect

About the Forum:

Steve Badanes is founder of Jersey Devil, an architectural firm comprised of skilled craftsmen, architects, inventors, and artists "committed to the interdependence of building and design." Jersey Devil architects/builders live on-site during construction of their designs, which are known for energy- efficiency and innovative use of materials.

The firm is nationally recognized for designing and building innovative projects from homes to playgrounds to public sculptures. Badanes is an expert on energy-efficient building techniques and speaks on the social responsibilities of architects and the role of architecture in building communities.

Presented by AIA Cleveland Committee on the Environment with the Cleveland Green Building Coalition and the Levin College Forum.
