

The Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs Forum Program presents
Building our Future Beyond Foreclosure:

Reweaving the Neighborhood Fabric at MOCA Cleveland

Eva Struble. Calle Pere IV (detail), 2008.
Paper, vinyl, screen, acrylic, canvas. Approximately 8 x
15 feet. Courtesy of Lombard-Freid Projects, New York

Wednesday, July 22, 2009, 5:30-8:00 p.m.

Please note: this program will take place at MOCA Cleveland.
8501 Carnegie Avenue . Cleveland, OH 44106

Free and open to the public, registration is not necessary.

For more information about the exhibit please visit the MOCA website at http://www.mocacleveland.org/exhibition_details.php?exhibition_id=54

Agenda

- 5:30-6:30 p.m. Tour the new MOCA exhibit, *There Goes the Neighborhood
6:30-8:00 p.m. A public, open-mic discussion of ideas about revitalizing
Cleveland's communities

About this forum

There Goes the Neighborhood explores the evolution of communities here and abroad. The exhibition focuses on how architecture and landscape embody a neighborhood's past, present, and potential future. The work on view examines places amid growth or decline, sites that hover somewhere between construction, deterioration, and renewal. The artists reveal how physical sites symbolize the human experience of change, whether simple or complex, invited or forced. Linking actual and anticipated shifts in communities across the globe, There Goes the Neighborhood emphasizes the evolving structures and compositions of neighborhoods in the twenty-first century.

This program is part of the Building our Future Beyond Foreclosure series and is presented in collaboration with the Cleveland Neighborhood Development Coalition.

Building our Future Beyond Foreclosure

The foreclosure crisis in Cuyahoga County did not happen overnight. Similarly, the strategies for moving our communities and residents Beyond Foreclosure will take time to evolve. Over the coming year, the Levin College Forum will focus on strategies, tactics and projects that are new, creative, environmentally sustainable and invigorating to the marketplace. Challenging times are not new to Cleveland, and on this issue, where no roadmap exists, we have an opportunity to create a new path to our future.

What do we want the 2020 census say about our region, our cities, our residents and our neighborhoods?
What are the tactics and strategies we can employ now to make this happen?

Join us as we work together, Building our Future Beyond Foreclosure. Be part of the conversation, connect with policy makers and rebuild Northeast Ohio's cities

Cleveland State University

Maxine Goodman Levin
College of Urban Affairs

The Center for Civic Education

engagedlearning™

Dominion®

Third Federal
FOUNDATION

CLEVELAND
foundation

NEIGHBORHOOD
PROGRESS

ideastream®

Enterprise®
COMMUNITY
PARTNERS

Planning Committee Partners:

- Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland
- The Dominion Foundation
- Third Federal Foundation
- Neighborhood Progress, Inc.
- Cuyahoga County Foreclosure Prevention Program and Land Bank
- Cuyahoga County Department of Development
- Cleveland City Council
- ideastream™
- The Cleveland Foundation
- The George Gund Foundation
- Case Western Reserve University, School of Law and MSASS
- Cleveland State University Colleges of Urban Affairs and Law

Where the community gathers to discuss challenges, create opportunities and celebrate accomplishments.

The Levin College Forum

Photo: Diane Ward, Show Me Love, Cleveland