The Flats and the Lake Erie shoreline continue to change dramatically. For the last 25 years, these areas so unique to Cleveland have been a part of the photographic oeuvre of Jennie Jones. Known for her color portraits of Cleveland, Jennie Jones prefers black and white silver gelatin for her studies of the Flats, the Cuyahgoa River, Whiskey Island, and the Lake Front. Images of the Hulett's included in this exhibition have never before been shown.

The exhibit runs through December 2008.
Gallery hours are Monday–Friday 9:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m. and Saturday 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.
