

Love it or hate it? Renovate it or raze it?

A Public Forum on the Breuer Tower

Thursday, October 26, 2006

5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Glickman-Miller Hall, Atrium, Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs,
Cleveland State University

Agenda

Moderator: Steve Rugare, Public Programs Associate, Adjunct Assistant Professor,
Cleveland Urban Design Collaborative, Kent State University

5:30 – 6:00 p.m. Registration and Social

6:00 – 6:05 p.m. Welcome
Kathy Hexter, Director, Center for Civic Education, Levin College of Urban Affairs, Cleveland State University

6:05 – 6:10 p.m. Introduction
Steve Rugare, Public Programs Associate, Adjunct Assistant Professor,
Cleveland Urban Design Collaborative, Kent State University

6:10 – 6:25 p.m. County Administration Building – Needs and Realities
Peter Lawson Jones, Cuyahoga County Commissioner

6:25 – 6:40 p.m. Marcel Breuer, Cleveland Trust Tower – History and Significance
Steve Rugare, Public Programs Associate, Adjunct Assistant Professor,
Cleveland Urban Design Collaborative, Kent State University

6:40 – 6:50 p.m. Preserving the Recent Past – Importance and Challenges
Ted Sande, AIA – Preservation Consultant

6:50 – 7:05 p.m. Sustainability and Environmental Concerns
Melanie Kintner, Interim Executive Director, Cleveland Green Building Coalition

7:05 – 7:20 p.m. Project Feasibility and Planning Issues
Elwin Robison, Ph.D., PE, Associate Professor, School of Architecture and Environmental Design, Kent State University

7:20 – 8:00 p.m. Public Comments and Dialogue