

Non-Profit Management Internship at Daily Dose of Reading

Organization: Daily Dose of Reading

Mission: Improving literacy in children by empowering families through reading and language.

Location: Virtual

Eligible: Students interested in start-up or small non-profit management. Seniors or graduate students preferred.

Timeframe: Fall 2022 and Spring 2023. Can be one or both semesters.

Hours: Flexible (10-15 hours per week)

Description: Work directly with the Executive Director on strategic planning, board development, fundraising, and programming projects from planning to implementation for a small, early literacy non-profit.

Website: www.dailydoseofreading.org

Apply: Email your resume or letter of interest to Michael Armstrong at marmstrong@dailydoseofreading.org

Please note this is an unpaid internship. Students can received academic credit for UST 490/690.