

"In Tribute to the Public Service" is an annual award program established by the College of Urban Affairs, Cleveland State University, to salute individuals who have made significant long term contributions to public service in the Cleveland community. Proceeds from the event will develop endowed scholarship support at the College of Urban Affairs for students interested in public service careers.

Richard Kelso

This year's award recipient, Dick Kelso, exemplifies those qualities this award, "In Tribute to the Public Service," seeks to recognize. Since 1981, he has been involved in activities as diverse as United Way, Clean-Land Ohio, and the United Negro College Fund. Dick Kelso has gained universal respect from his colleagues for his commitment to bettering the Cleveland community through private-public partnerships.
