The Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership is a multidisciplinary program of study for students interested in leadership theory and practice. The program prepares students to assume leadership roles in organizational settings in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.

The degree program is a joint venture of the Maxine Goodman Levin College of Urban Affairs, the Monte Ahuja College of Business Administration, and the School of Communication.

Students learn to develop the leadership skills necessary to be effective in our global economy, enhance problem solving skills to promote positive organizational change, and learn effective management concepts which can be applied to the public, private, and nonprofit sectors.
